

Roosevelt Adopts Silence Strategy on Future Course

President Rules Out Re- peal of Neutrality Act at Present

Washington, May 29—(AP)—President Roosevelt adopted the strategy of silence today on future methods of delivering the goods to Great Britain.

"You don't telegraph your moves anymore in the world of today," one service official explained, referring to the president's statement that army and navy technicians were devising new safeguards. "You can't afford to. You'll notice the other fellows never do."

However, Chairman Reynolds (D-NC) of the senate military committee looked for "full convicts of some description." He said that was his interpretation of the president's firsides chat pledge to see that needed supplies reached England safely.

On the other hand, no less a personage than Vice President Wallace was reported to be disappointed that his chief had not been more specific as to how delivery would be assured.

Roosevelt did nothing to quell conjecture yesterday at his special press conference. He disclaimed any intention of seeking change or repeal of the neutrality act, contending that it in no way infringed on the principle of the freedom of the seas, which he formally reasserted for the United States Tuesday night.

By ruling out action on the neutrality law, the president eliminated the possibility of American merchant ships being used to carry cargoes through the present combat zones. However, this caused one official to recall Roosevelt's specific assertions in the past that the combat zone quarantine did not apply to the nation's naval vessels, which were free to go wherever their missions took them.

Unity His Purpose

Roosevelt, touching on another subject of considerable speculation, also told reporters yesterday that he contemplated no executive orders at present to invoke any of the numerous broad powers conferred on him by the proclamation of an unlimited national emergency. This tended to confirm authoritative reports that the president's purpose was to unify the country, as he privately expressed it.

Nevertheless, the proclamation of a full emergency gave rise to the belief in army circles today that an indefinite extension of active service was inevitable for 291,000 National Guardsmen now in training. Officials did not believe that Roosevelt's powers were sufficient for this, and hence thought congress would be asked for the necessary legislation.

New Cigaret Tax Measure Sent to Gov. Green Today

Springfield, Ill., May 29—(AP)—The Illinois House put the finishing touches on the new two cent cigarette tax bill today and sent it to Governor Green for signature.

With little debate the House concurred in six Senate amendments to the tax measure, the most important of which increases from four to five per cent of tax collections the rebate to distributors for placing the tax stamps on packages of cigarettes. The House vote was 102 to 9.

Final approval of the revised bill—replacing the original held unconstitutional by Attorney General George F. Barrett—came less than two weeks after it was submitted to the General Assembly. The tax will be effective July 1.

Legislation supported by Republican administration leaders to loosen the restrictions against firing state civil service employees also won its first test in the House today but discussion within GOP ranks indicated a strenuous fight would develop when the measure is called for passage, possibly next week.

Committee Overruled

By a vote of 74 to 54, the House overruled the recommendation of the civil service committee that the bill, which would permit discharge of civil service employees without following the current practice of first conducting hearings, be defeated. The bill was then placed on the House calendar.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Charles W. Clabach (R-Champaign) and carried out most of the recommendations of the Branson legislative committee which recently concluded an investigation of civil service administration with the report that wide-spread

Memorial Day

A day of tender memory,
A day of sacred hours,
Of little bands of marching
men,
Of drums and flags and flowers.

A day when a great nation
halts
Its mighty, throbbing pace,
And pays its meed to gratitude
And love with willing grace.

A day to keep from year to year
In memory of the dead:
Let music sound and flowers
be laid

Gasless Sundays, Daylight Saving Time Considered

Washington, May 29—(AP)—Interior Secretary Ickes today advocated daylight saving time on a nationwide scale, and suggested that America may have to resort to restricted use of electricity and institute "gasless Sundays" to meet shortages of power and oil.

The statement came as an official of the Federal Power Commission foresaw a power emergency, "perhaps the most serious in history", and revealed studies were being made on means of diverting power from civilian to industrial uses, to prevent interruption of defense production.

Daylight saving, Ickes said, could be instituted by an act of congress, to save substantial amounts of power.

In mentioning the possibility of priorities in the use of power, the secretary said restricted consumption might easily include night baseball, and he commented: "It's more important to make aluminum than to have night baseball."

The power shortage, he said, might "be met by moral suasion", through civilians voluntarily restricting consumption.

Turning to oil, Ickes told his press conference the problem was strictly one of transportation and he foresaw a possibility of restricted use, especially on the Eastern seaboard.

Tankers Insufficient

In this connection, he advocated oil pipe lines from the south to the east, where severe shortages of oil are feared because of the transfer of one-fifth of the American tanker fleet to British service. He advocated priorities

Moderate Temperature Forecast for Friday

Chicago, May 29—(AP)—A fresh cool air mass from Canada advanced into the Middle West today, promising relief from the unseasonably high temperatures of the last two days.

As the cool air moved south-eastward over the Great Lakes region the weather bureau forecast moderate temperatures for memorial day, with occasional showers or thunderstorms throughout the region.

The thermometer fell to 37 at Duluth, Minn., last night. A total of 2.44 inches of rain fell at Wausau, Wis., as the cold air stream met a field of warm, moist air.

LUEDE NAMES AIDES

Chicago—(AP)—State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder announced these appointments: Harold A. Willard, Belvidere, and Charles W. McCall, Sterling, senior bank examiners; William Knutson, Aurora; Arthur R. Salem, Galesburg, and C. A. Roberts, El Paso, assistant bank examiners, and R. W. Wilber, Crystal Lake, assistant building and loan examiner.

Executive Council of A. F. L. Calls Its Strikers to Work

Says Work in Western Shipyards Should Be Resumed at Once

(By The Associated Press)

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor declared today that AFL machinists on strike at shipyards in the San Francisco Bay area "should call it off immediately and return to work."

This formal announcement by the council backed up a sweeping pronouncement it issued yesterday, calling on all its affiliates to take disciplinary action against local unions which strike without exhausting resources for mediation. The executive council said it would take similar action itself against federal labor unions directly under its control.

The council declared that uninterrupted production by the west coast shipyards was vital to the nation's defense, and further that "the good name, the honor and the 'no-strike' policy of the American Federation of Labor demand that the coastwise master agreement between the shipbuilders and the metal trades unions, barring strikes and lockouts, be religiously observed and respected."

Differences should be adjusted through conferences, mediation and arbitration, the council declared.

AFL and CIO machinists are on strike at 11 San Francisco yards which hold $500,000,000 in defense contracts. They are seeking $1.15 an hour and double pay for overtime, instead of $1.12 and time-and-one-half overtime provided in a coastwise agreement which the OPM negotiated with the AFL.

Conciliator to Cleveland

The United States Conciliation Service assigned Paul Broderick of its staff to a labor dispute at Cleveland which threatened to close five plants of the Aluminum Company of America. CIO die casters there voted last night to empower a negotiating committee to call a strike. The workmen seek a wage increase of 4 1/2 cents an hour, in addition to a recent eight-cent raise granted by the company. The present minimum scale is 72 cents.

A strike at the Monsanto Chemical Company at East St. Louis ended when AFL workers voted to accept a wage increase of 7 1/2 cents an hour in lieu of the 10 cents they had demanded. Remaining differences are to be negotiated. Five cents of the increase is to become effective immediately, the remainder in six months. The old scale ranged from 65 cents to $1.25 an hour.

State Law Makers Remember Selves

Springfield, Ill., May 25—(AP)—Members of the Illinois General Assembly have not forgotten themselves in considering new laws. The House executive committee yesterday approved in rapid succession the following four bills:

Kasserman—To reduce the length of the legislative session from the present six months to five.

Weber—To provide payment of pensions, amounting to one-fourth of the amount of compensation paid in the last biennium served, to members of the General Assembly who have served 20 years.

Gibbs—To appropriate $60,000 for installation of a mechanical roll-call voting device which would cut time of roll calls from approximately 30 minutes to less than one minute.

Rhodes—To provide that one-half of compensation to which legislators are entitled be paid annually instead of the entire amount biennially (this would reduce the amount of income tax they pay in legislative years.)

National Safety Council Predicts Record Toll of Traffic Deaths

Chicago, May 29—(AP)—The National Safety Council issued a sinister prediction today that the American vacation season might be started this week end with the largest Memorial Day traffic toll in history.

The only thing that can prevent a loss of some 400 lives over the weekend, the council stated, was the exercise of extraordinary caution by motorists and pedestrians.

Traffic fatalities already are running 1,500 ahead of last year, the Council reported. In the first four months of this year 10,780 persons were killed in traffic, compared with 9,290 for the same period last year.

In April alone, the Council said, the death toll was 2,600, 16 per cent more than the 2,240 killed in April, 1940.

It was in the light of these rising figures that the Council made its Memorial Day prediction. The Council's statement called upon every one to carry the Memorial Day spirit one step further "by protecting the living as well as honoring the dead."

Increased travel was held to be a factor in the rise, but the Council said: "The upward trend can be blamed entirely on rural areas and smaller towns, where traffic deaths are almost one-fourth greater than last year."

Fifteen of 41 reporting states showed decreases from April, 1940. Wyoming's was the largest, 28 per cent, which the Council interpreted as eight lives saved.

Memphis Leading City

Memphis led all cities of more than 250,000 population with an 28 per cent reduction for the first four months. Its death-free record for March and April enabled it to nose out Portland, Ore., which had a 53 per cent reduction. Kansas City, Newark and Providence had reductions of 33 per cent or more.

New York's 19 per cent reduction was judged to have saved the most lives—59 for the first four months. In all, 24 of 36 reporting cities of 250,000 or more population showed reductions.

Leading cities, ranked according to four month death rates.

Officials Believe Japan Is Cooling To Axis Alliance

See Business Gaining Influence in Tokyo Government

Washington, May 29—(AP)—Responsible legislators said today there is a growing belief in administration circles that Japan's adherence to the axis soon may weaken, and they cited as evidence President Roosevelt's virtual omission in his fireside chat of any discussion of America's problems in the Pacific.

This belief, reported to be entertained in high quarters, was said to be based on information that business interests apparently were gaining influence in the Tokyo government and might eventually prevail over the military party which led Japan into the war with China and into the axis alliance.

The President made only brief references to the Pacific in his address Tuesday. He mentioned aid to China, but nothing else beyond the assertion that the democracies were organizing a system which might be used to force enslaved peoples to build "a naval and air force intended to gain and hold and be master of the Atlantic and the Pacific as well."

Three of Crew of Hood Known Alive

London, May 29—(AP)—Although shipping circles had given Britons some hope that a number of survivors might be found from the exploded battle cruiser Hood, informed sources said today that only three—an officer and two seamen—had been accounted for.

The Hood, with a normal complement of more than 1,300 men, blew up so suddenly last Saturday when a shell from the German battleship Bismarck herself sunk three days later—struck a magazine. Naval experts said her crewmen who were not killed outright had little chance to escape.

The name of one survivor was known Robert Tilburn, whose father, J. F. Tilburn of Leeds, received word he was safe in Iceland after the Admiralty had informed him that Robert was presumed lost.

Motorists of United States Paid '870,692,000 in State Fuel Taxes

Washington, May 29—(AP)—Motorists in the United States paid $870,692,000 in state gasoline taxes during 1940.

Reports of the Public Roads Administration as announced by the Federal Works Agency showing state taxes were imposed on more than 22 billion gallons of gasoline during the year.

To have dispensed this gasoline from one gigantic filling station would have required the continuous operation of about 3,000 pumps, the FWA said.

In each of seven states more than a billion gallons of gasoline was used during 1940. These

Allies in Crete Battle in Jaws of Closing Vice

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The position of the Anglo-Greek allies in the battle of Crete was so grave today that even as this is being written they will have been compelled to give up the fight to retain control of that strategic island.

During the ten days of one of the fiercest battles of history the Nazi dive-bombers have all but blasted Crete out of the water. Late Greek reports record that the cities of the island literally are pulverized by the deluge of high explosives that have produced an inferno in which civilians and troops alike have struggled.

Lack of air-power in the eastern Mediterranean is the millstone about the allied neck. It will so continue to be until this deficiency is supplied from America.

Some London observers believe that if the Hitlerites win the battle of Crete they will turn their attention next to the big British naval base on the island of Cyprus. This lies four hundred miles to the east of Crete and off the coast of Syria.

That might indeed be an early objective, but possession of Crete would give the Nazis a fairly wide choice of moves. In any event, they must take time out for consolidation of the bomb-torn island before it will be of much value as a base for further major operations.

It is quite possible that the Germans will by-pass Cyprus for the moment, and try to establish themselves in Syria. This would provide a necessary base for a drive through Palestine to Egypt and the Suez canal, and it would give them handy airdromes for an assault against Cyprus.

Also of vast and perhaps more immediate importance is the fact that possession of Crete would bring German bombers within 250 miles of the Libyan-Egyptian border on the North African coast where the axis expeditionary force is maneuvering for an opening to drive into Egypt. In fact, this entire stretch of coast, including the all-important British naval base at Alexandria, and the Suez canal, would be brought within very handy bombing distance for the Nazis.

While possession of the island of Crete doesn't by a long shot win the conflict for domination of the eastern Mediterranean, it would be of inestimable value of development of the German campaign. The only satisfaction the British and their allies get out of the situation is that the German victory—if so it proves to be—has been tremendously costly.

The British claim that the Nazis have thrown equipment away right and left and among other things have lost many of the 1,200 transport planes they are said to have assembled in Greece for the effort to drive the allies from the eastern Mediterranean. That will be a blow to Hitler, for those big planes cannot be replaced overnight.

By far the most serious German loss, however, would appear to rest in the deaths of many thousands of paratroopers. It takes long and arduous training to produce these fighters. Then, too, they must be young, athletic, of the right weight, and must be temperamentally suited to the stunt of diving out of a warplane and

Cuts Red Tape

St. Louis, May 29—(AP)—Taking judicial notice of the war in Europe, Probate Judge Walter F. Stahlguch has cut red tape to speed aid to a stricken Briton.

He ordered $1000 bequeathed to Miss Margaret R. Dickie of Peterhead, Scotland, released to her ahead of regular probate procedure when executors of the estate of her brother pointed out she was in urgent need of funds since a Nazi bombing raid destroyed her home.

The brother, John S. Dickie, former St. Louis construction executive, died March 19.

Caught Between Italians and Nazis Today

(By The Associated Press)

With newly-arrived Italian troops striking from the east end off the island, Adolf Hitler's aerial invaders captured Crete's prize harbor of Suda Bay on the west today and occupied Candia, in central Crete, as the British struggled desperately in the jaws of a closing vise.

Candia is the island's biggest city, with a population of 33,000, about 55 miles east of Suda Bay.

British military headquarters, conceding that the heavily-reinforced Germans had scored major gains, declared that violent hand-to-hand fighting was continuing.

Casualties were heavy on both sides, the British said, with New Zealand and other imperial forces fighting bitterly east of Suda Bay.

Amid the losing struggle in Crete, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden gave the first comprehensive statement on Britain's war aims and declared:

"We must never forget that Germany is the worst master Europe has known. Five times in the last century she has violated the peace. She must never be in a position to play that role again."

Seizure of Suda Bay gave the Germans a bridgehead for landing seaborne troops, and military experts said it may prove to be the turning-point of the struggle—the beginning of another British debacle.

Hitler's high command reported that Nazi mountain troops, striking on beyond Suda Bay, reached Almyro Bay to the east in pursuit of the "defeated" British.

Claim Many Prisoners

The German communiqué said Nazi forces had taken a large number of prisoners.

Fascist press dispatches reported also that hundreds of little Greek sailboats, loaded with German troops, had been safely escorted to Crete under the guns of Italian warships.

Italian troops belatedly entered the conflict yesterday, it was reported.

"The landing was made in perfect order at the extreme eastern tip of the island with companies of soldiers and sailors," fascist informants said.

"Its effect is to create for the commander of the British imperial forces a sudden new front to the east, when German pressure they must face on the west is already heavy."

Report Schmeling, Former Champion, Shot Dead in Crete

Calro, Egypt, May 29—(AP)—Max Schmeling, former world champion heavyweight boxer, has been killed while trying to escape from British Imperial forces which captured him in the German invasion of Crete, a New Zealand ambulance driver witness declared today.

Returning to Egypt, the ambulance driver said: "Early in the battle of Crete, a husky German soldier was captured, slightly wounded."

"Speaking English with a strong German accent, he said he was Schmeling and his papers bore that name. He was truculent and surly."

"After talking with him at length, our officers were convinced he was Schmeling."

Grabbed Tommy's Rifle

"Later in the day he was being taken to a field hospital by our ambulance corps when more German parachutists descended on top of us and a dog fight opened."

"Schmeling grabbed a rifle from one of our soldiers who had been wounded and went into action like a wild bull."

"Before he did any damage, however, someone let him have it, and that was the end of Max."

The ambulance driver said he did not know whether Schmeling arrived in Crete by parachute, plane, or glider, but German officials had said previously that he went there as a parachute trooper.

WAS ONE OF MANY

Berlin, May 29—(AP)—A German military spokesman said tonight he doubted reports that Max Schmeling had been killed in Crete, but added, "it must be remembered that Schmeling was one of many parachutists, and Germany would not necessarily issue a special communiqué concerning the fate of any one of them."

Drought Situation Decidedly Serious

Washington, May 29 —(AP)—A continued absence of material rainfall has created, at least potentially, what the weather bureau calls a decidedly serious drought situation in much of the country east of the Mississippi river.

Grass and hay crops, spring seeded grain, and early truck and vegetable crops in some areas were said by the bureau today to be in a critical condition already. Winter grains were reported to be heading on short straw.

The bureau said cultivated crops on the other hand, have not as yet suffered materially.

The area most seriously affected extends from New England southward and southwestward to the Gulf of Mexico and the Mississippi river.

Similar to 1930

The bureau said conditions resemble those of the spring of 1930, when one of the worst droughts in the history of the east caused widespread agricultural losses.

While most of the western half of the country has been unusually well supplied with moisture so far this year, precipitation has been persistently sub normal east of the Mississippi river since last November. The bureau said the winter and spring months were the driest since 1889 in Kentucky and since 1901 in Tennessee.

Offering some hope for improvement, the bureau said its records show that a dry June did not ordinarily follow a dry May.

During 1939, motor trucks hauled 53 per cent of the livestock, 40 per cent of the fruit and vegetables, 65 per cent of the poultry, 39 per cent of the eggs, and 27 per cent of the butter received in major markets of the country.

Federal manufacturers' excise taxes for the last eight years on gasoline, lubricants, motor vehicles, accessories, and tires have totaled $2,422,000,000, an average of $302,600,000 a year.

Motor vehicle taxes averaged $55.83 for each motor vehicle in operation last year in this country, an increase of $2.66 over the previous year.

There are 50,000 separate inspections on an aircraft engine.

Gentlemen:

We've tried them all! Top of the stove and carry the water; the old turn-em-on-each-time heater; the sadly over-rated furnace coil; scuttle-a-day coal burner; a complicated, so-called automatic gadget with a chain; all had a brief turn at trying to furnish us with hot water. Some leaked water, some leaked more water, and none did the job right!

Then we installed an automatic storage water heater. The amazingly low operating cost pleased us beyond words, and we are never out of hot water! No more wishful waiting in our home.

We have tried them all and found the best!

Censorship Not Provided by Law

Washington, May 29—(AP)—Government legal experts said today that although President Roosevelt's proclamation of a full emergency opened the door to control of radio, there was no provision in law for censorship of publications, even in wartime.

Some lawyers conceded that the president might affect the transmission of news through the power to suspend or amend rules and regulations under the Federal Communications Act, but that no direct censorship appeared possible.

The president may suspend the FCC rules applicable to transmission of communications by radio or wire upon proclaiming the existence of "war or threat of war or a state of public peril or disaster or other national emergency, or in order to preserve the neutrality of the United States."

He also may demand priority for communications essential to the nation "during the continuance of war in which the United States is engaged." Government legal authorities would not say whether the same end could be accomplished under the "national peril" provision, which would permit the president to take over radio stations or their equipment.

Potash

KEEPS CORN Growing

The corn in the center was left out when extra potash was applied as a side-dressing. Particularly on high-lime or "alkali" soils, where corn often shows yellow-streaked leaves with brown, scorched edges (potash-starvation symptoms), this extra potash is badly needed. Very profitable increases in yield have resulted from applications as late as the second or third cultivation, although earlier applications are more effective. Keep your corn growing. Side-dress with 100-200 lbs. of muriate of potash per acre. The best machine for side-dressing is a fertilizer attachment on a corn cultivator, but any distributor which will place the potash in the moist soil near the roots will be satisfactory.

Write us for our free booklet on Corn, and for other literature on getting more profit from the use of fertilizers.

GET READY TO PAY MORE TAXES!

Every American will soon be called upon to bear an increased share of the financial burden involved in United States participation in the world-wide struggle against the military aggressors of Europe and Asia. On top of the lavish and wasteful spending for non-military purposes, the federal government finds itself with an outlay of billions of dollars for preparedness in the campaign to defeat the axis powers. Nothing has been accomplished toward saving money allocated for needless non-defense purposes. So, almost confiscatory taxes must be expected and a goodly portion of individual savings must be turned over to the government in the form of loans. Otherwise we shall witness the bankruptcy of the Federal Treasury.

Mine Operators Believe FDR Proclamation Does Not Permit Shutdowns

Washington, May 29—(AP)—A spokesman for mine operators of the Appalachian soft coal area expressed the opinion today that President Roosevelt's proclamation of a national emergency "forbids the closing down of any industry vital to national defense."

The spokesman, who is generally recognized in his field as a leader, but who declined to permit use of his name, had been asked what effect the proclamation would have on the threat of a possible new shutdown in the coal mines due to a wage dispute between southern operators and the United Mine Workers Union.

Union officials said their demands were before the defense mediation board and "while the question is before the board we can't comment."

"There cannot be a shutdown," the industry spokesman said. "We have to say now are we good Americans; are we good citizens? I think we are."

"Without conceding one single contention that has been held out for by southern operators and the United Mine Workers, it would seem to me the proclamation forbids the closing down of any industry vital to national defense."

*Among ALL motorists in the Midwest Red Crown is more than twice as popular as the next leading brand, according to latest available state tax and inspection data. Actual personal midwest surveys among 736 indicate that school teachers, as a specific class, prefer Red Crown 2 to 1.

Low-cost-per-mile stretches travel money

LONG SUMMER vacations give teachers yearly chances for extensive motoring, but their modest salaries dictate strict economy. Particularly interesting then is their proved preference for Red Crown gasoline—better than 2 to 1!

Not only among school teachers, but among all motorists in the Middle West, Red Crown is more than twice as popular as any other brand. The fact is, value-minded car owners have discovered that Red Crown keeps their gasoline buying on a better "budget" basis. There are two main reasons why!

First, of course, there's the low-cost-per-mile all Red Crown users enjoy. But there's also this second reason: Red Crown packs such ample power that you're encouraged to standardize on its economy. Uniform in quality and high in anti-knock, Red Crown is famous for responsive, dependable performance. Ask for it wherever you see the "Standard Service" sign.

Faye Stauffer of Polo Becomes Bride, Tonight

The Rev. H. J. Baker will assist the Rev. Clinton Stauffer, father of the bride, perform the wedding ceremony in which the Stauffers' daughter, Faye, will become the bride of Ervin M. Gitz of Freeport at 7 o'clock this evening. The vows will be solemnized at the Church of the Brethren in Polo, with palms, ferns, and peonies decorating the candlelit altar.

Miss Avis Heckman of Polo will be the nuptial pianist. Mrs. Emerson Witmer, also of Polo, is to sing two selections, "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

Miss Stauffer will be wearing a wedding gown of white embroidered mousseline de soie, fashioned with a fitted bodice, full skirt, and train. Her fingertip veil and blusher will fall from a coronet of roses. The strand of pearls she will wear was a gift from her bridegroom, and she will carry a white Bible, with a shower of white, rosebud-studded streamers falling from a single orchid. Mr. Stauffer will give his daughter in marriage.

Miss Ruth Pieper of Freeport, as maid of honor, will be dressed in pink embroidered organdy. Miss Mary Elizabeth Hanes of Oregon and Miss Ruth Gilbert of Polo, bridesmaids, have chosen yellow embroidered organdy. Colonial bouquets of roses and sweetpeas will be carried by the attendants, who will wear matching flowers in their hair.

Robert Caudle of Freeport is to serve Mr. Gitz as best man. Ushers will be Charles Oyler, Jr., of Polo and Cecil Stauffer, the bride's brother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stauffer will be attired in blue twin-print sheer redingote with white accessories, and a shoulder spray of gardenias.

A reception will be held in the church parlors for 75 guests. Assisting with the serving will be Mrs. Cecil Stauffer of Polo, the Misses Pauline Reed of Pecatonica, I. West of Polo, Dorothy Stauffer of Dixon, and Mrs. Wayne Weaver of Polo.

Afterward the bridal couple will leave on a wedding trip through the south. For traveling, this evening's bride has chosen an ensemble of eggshell sharkskin with Kelly green accessories. After June 4, they will be at home at 924 West Douglas street, Freeport.

The bride was graduated from Polo Community high school with the class of 1936, and from Deaconess hospital training school for nurses at Freeport. Mr. Gitz, a graduate of Freeport high school, is employed by the Burgess battery company in Freeport.

The couple will reside in Dixon.

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. Emily M. Lantz for Dixon Telegraph Readers

Girl Scouting develops culinary skill as well as health habits. Eighteen veteran eaters, including newspaper and magazine writers, serving as contest judges, discovered that Girl Scouts can do more than toast marshmallows when six intent youngsters gathered to "cook it off" one May afternoon in the vast kitchens of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York City.

The New York Fishery Council sponsored the seafood cooking competition, the Ritz-Carlton session representing the finals after a series of preliminary district contests. Many an expert cook would have been flustered and intimidated in the professional caverns of a great hotel kitchen, with its lanes of roasting stoves and bewildering array of gleaming saucepans, to say nothing of a milling audience of judges, Girl Scout officials and nervous mothers.

But the 11 to 13 year old girls seemed completely oblivious of their unfamiliar surroundings as they concentrated on cooking the flounder fillets supplied by the Fishery Council. Each contestant prepared the recipe which had won her district honors; each had 2 flounder fillets to cook, the method, ingredients and garnishing being her own choice.

The six juvenile cooks had Chef Louis Diat running in circles after spoons, bowls, seasonings and baking dishes, but he bore up nobly and hovered over the girls with an attitude both paternal and professional. Monsieur Diat quietly made his own choice of winner, and after the judges had sampled six different flounder dishes and voted, it turned out that their verdict coincided with his expert opinion.

Twelve-year-old Beatrice Vlach was declared the first prize winner for her flounder fillets served in a velvet smooth Hollandaise. Her prize will be a free trip to Washington, accompanied by her mother. Other prizes are going to the runners-up, headed by eleven-year-old Sylvia T. Snyder, who won second place for her delicious flounder, broiled in butter, and served with melted butter and lemon juice.

Nodding his approval over the selection of Beatrice, Monsieur Diat remarked sagely, "There is no heating the French in the way with a fish."

What the famous Chef stressed, however, was that Beatrice used "natural" ingredients (fresh vegetables) to flavor her dish, in contrast with mushroom and tomato soups which furnished the basis of a sour cream sauce, prepared by one of the other contestants.

Taking no chances on the Ritz kitchen stock, Beatrice brought her own supplies in a brown bag, including a carrot, a small onion, butter, flour, 1 egg, milk, lemon and seasonings. She was the only contestant who considered the use of a flavoring "Court Bouillon" for poaching the fish before the chosen sauce was added. Any chosen fresh vegetables may be cooked slowly in salted water before the fish goes in to poach (not boil) over moderate heat.

The winner learned this method from her mother, a Czech-Slovakian, who taught Beatrice to prepare the fish as she had learned to do it in her native country. The recipe is believed to be of French origin.

Before giving you the winning recipe, which I know you will want to file, I should record that the final choice was not easy, for each of the six specialties was delicious. In fact, the superior fish cookery of these Girl Scouts put many adults to shame. Too often a moist fillet is swaddled in bread crumbs, fried carelessly and served in a sea of grease or high seasonings, which overpower the delicacy of this food.

The selected recipe proved again that the successful dish employs seasonings and sauces with discretion to accent flavor and texture.

Girl Scout cooks are trained in neatness and orderly habits. Contestants in the district preliminaries were judged critically for neatness in dress, hair, hands, for cleanliness of utensils and ingredients and for working habits. The "gallery" of judges chuckled audibly at the sight of tiny, black pig-tailed Norma Bilchik wiping a Ritz Carlton bowl fastidiously with a clean towel before starting her sauce.

Here is the way to make Beatrice's "Blue Ribbon" flounder:

Fillet Flounder Hollandaise
2 cups cold water (about)
1 teaspoon salt
1-2 carrot, chopped
1-4 small onion, diced
2 flounder fillets
1-2 tablespoons butter
1-2 tablespoon flour
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoons milk
Few drops lemon
Pepper and salt to taste
4 tablespoons fish stock

Salt the water, place in it the chopped carrot and onion. Bring slowly to a boil while preparing flounder. Wash and dry fillets; those used in the contest weighed about 1-3 pound each. Salt fillets, roll and fasten with toothpicks and put to poach in the stock. Simmer 10 minutes over medium flame. Do not boil vigorously. Prepare this sauce in double boiler:

Melt—not brown—the butter. Stir in flour and the egg yolk, which has been mixed with the milk. Add a few drops of lemon, pepper and salt to taste and finally 4 tablespoons of the stock in which the fish was cooked. When the sauce thickens, pour it over the fillets in a hot serving dish.

Perhaps you would like to broil a flounder to golden-brown perfection, so that it would win second place, as did Sylvia's. Sylvia learned the value of simplicity in fish cookery from her uncle, a restaurateur. She also learned that fish must be thoroughly dried, after its preparatory cleansing.

Broiled Flounder
Wash the flounder and dry it thoroughly. Roll well in flour and let the fish stand while the oven is heating. Dot generously with butter, arrange in a lightly greased pan and broil about 20 minutes, depending on thickness of fish. Before serving, pour a mixture of lemon juice and melted butter over the fish. Garnish with parsley and slices of lemon.

Deep Fried Flounder
Thirteen-year-old Adele Perrineau, representing the Harlem Girl Scouts, who tied for third honors, presented a tempting bronze morsel for the judges. She washed, dried and salted her flounder before rolling it in egg yolk diluted with milk. This was dipped in cracker dust and fried in deep shortening.

Now is the time for Senior Homemakers to prove that Girl Scouts cannot outdo them in expert fish cookery!

DISHES WITH COLOR APPEAL
Spinach Ring on Vegetable Plate

Hot vegetable plates can be planned for color, centering each item around the main choice, which might be a spinach mold. See to it that the plate has variety in form and texture, as well as in color. A few strips of crisp bacon may be added to any vegetable plate.

Fluffy boiled rice, flecked with paprika, may center the spinach ring; creamed fish or creamed mushrooms may be used. Buttered noodles are still another choice. A mixture of carrots and peas may be used, although they lack sufficient contrast.

Spinach Ring
1 small onion, minced
2 tablespoons butter
3 cups chopped, cooked spinach
2 cups thick White Sauce
2 eggs, separated
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup soft bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper, paprika or nutmeg

Saute onion in butter 3 minutes. Remove from heat and add spinach. Stir crumbs into white sauce, combine with slightly beaten egg yolks and add to first mixture, stirring well. Add lemon juice and desired seasonings, depending on amount used in white sauce. Finally fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into greased ring mold, place in pan of hot water and bake about 35 minutes in moderately hot oven 375 degrees F. or until firm. Unmold on hot plate and serve at once, filling center with creamed vegetables, fish or rice. Serves 6.

Peppermint Devil's Food Cake
1/2 cup shortening
1 1/4 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
2 eggs or 3 egg yolks, unbeaten
3 squares (oz.) unsweetened chocolate
2 cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sweet milk
Peppermint frosting (see recipe).

Cream shortening with sugar and vanilla until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition. Add chocolate and blend thoroughly. Sift flour and soda together. Add alternately with milk, starting and ending with dry ingredients. Beat until batter is smooth. Pour into 2 or 3 greased layer cake pans, lined with waxed paper. Bake 25 to 30 minutes in moderate oven 350 degrees F. Remove from oven; let stand in pan 5 minutes; before turning out on cooling racks. Remove waxed paper, turn layers top side up and cool. Spread Peppermint Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

Peppermint Frosting
2 egg whites, unbeaten
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
5 tablespoons water
1 1/2 teaspoons light corn syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
Few drops oil of peppermint
Pink coloring
Combine egg whites, sugar, water and corn syrup in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water; beat constantly until mixture is thick enough to hang from beater in peak. Remove from heat, add vanilla, oil of peppermint to taste and a few drops of pink coloring, if desired. Beat with wooden spoon until color is well blended. Spread.

Salad Sandwich Loaf
1 loaf whole wheat bread
1/2 pound cottage cheese
1/2 cup chopped watercress
1 cup chopped carrots
1/2 cup cooked salad dressing
1 cup shredded cabbage
4 hard-boiled eggs

Cut 4 thin slices horizontally from a loaf of whole wheat bread. Spread first slice with cottage cheese, mixed with chopped watercress. Chopped green pepper may substitute. Spread second slice with chopped carrots mixed with cooked dressing. On the third slice goes a mixture of finely chopped cabbage and the hard-boiled egg whites. Add remaining slice of bread and press the loaf firmly together. Spread top and sides with your favorite thick salad dressing and sprinkle with diced hard-boiled egg yolks. This special yields nourishment, pep and color.

Pear-Grade Salad
Chill canned pears well before opening. Drain. Cover outer sides with a thin icing of cream cheese, moistened with mayonnaise. Cover this "frosting" with rows of seeded grape halves so that pear resembles a bunch of grapes. Serve with salad greens and mayonnaise. Pitted, canned or fresh cherries, or molded cranberry sauce, may replace grapes.

Fruit Juice Dressing
1/2 cup orange juice
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
Chill fruit and prepare strained juice just before serving. Combine ingredients and shake well. Serve with fruit salads.

Illinois to Begin Collection of Tax on Bets at Tracks

Springfield, Ill., May 29—(AP)—Illinois will begin immediately to collect a new two per cent tax on pari-mutuel wagering at race tracks.

Gov. Dwight H. Green signed last night the Lantz-Fribley bill establishing the tax and creating a new three-member board to supervise horse racing in the state. The signing game 24 hours after the legislature completed enactment of the measure.

By signing the bill last night and make it effective immediately, the governor made it possible for the state treasury to start collecting the new tax revenue on racing over the Memorial Day weekend, aides of the governor explained.

Sponsors of the bill, Senators Simon E. Lantz (R-Congerville) and John W. Fribley (D-Pana) have estimated it would produce an additional $1,000,000 a year in revenue to the state from horse racing.

"Take" Increased
The track operators "take" from the pari-mutuels is increased from seven and one-half to ten per cent, and the bill would require tracks to offer average daily purses of $6,800, except Fairmount track near Collinsville at which daily purses of at least $4,500 are required.

The Lantz-Fribley bill creates a three-member racing board, replacing the present commission of the same size, whose members will serve without salary. Leo Spitz, Chicago, is chairman of the present racing commission.

Present daily license fees which the tracks pay to the state, and the existing 20 per cent tax on admissions are continued by the bill.

MADISON MAKES FEW HITS GO LONG WAY IN WIN LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
The Madison Blues, who have shown they can uncork a powerhouse attack on occasion, made a few hits go a long way last night.

They collected only four safeties, but scored three runs to defeat the classy Springfield Browns, 3 to 2, as the Browns were garnering eight blows off Kincannon, who was steady in the pinches. The victors scored all of their runs in the sixth, when they chased Jones to the showers. Peterson finished for Springfield.

Decatur's Commies defeated Waterloo, 9 to 6, on a hit attack.

Moline sank deeper in the cellar, losing 5 to 4, to Cedar Rapids in a game which produced 24 hits.

Evansville defeated Clinton, 4 to 3, the victory shooting the Bees into first place. Clinton was in second, followed by Madison and Springfield.

WHITE SOX SIGN CHAPMAN; SELL ROSENTHAL TO TRIBE

Chicago, May 29—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox, battling to defend their slender hold on second place in the American League, signed outfielder Ben Chapman today shortly after selling Larry Rosenthal, another outfielder, to the league-leading Cleveland Indians.

Chapman, recently released by Washington, went to the Senators from Cleveland in a deal last winter. He started his major league career in 1930 as an infielder with the New York Yankees and was shifted to the outfield two years later. He also has played with the Boston Red Sox.

Rosenthal started with the White Sox in 1936, serving largely as an utility outfielder. He developed a reputation as a brilliant fielder, but an uncertain hitter. His .301 in 107 games last year was his best mark with the Sox.

Killed in Accident Enroute Home From Funeral of Father

Sheldon, Ill., May 29—(AP)—Willard Perkins, 44, manager of a glass works at Knox, Pa., was killed today and two other persons were injured as an automobile driven by Perkins ran off a curve on road 24 near here and crashed into two houses.

Miss Mary McLennon, 24, of Knox, suffered serious injuries and Leonard Johnson (age not available) of Stanley, Wis., was less seriously injured.

Perkins was enroute home from Stanley where he had attended the funeral of his father.

Mass Production of 'Chutists For U. S. Army Started

Two Training Towers at Fort Benning, Ga.
Opened Today

Fort Benning, Ga., May 29—(AP)—Mass production of parachutists to increase the present United States force four-fold by November begins here today with the opening of two $80,000 training towers, army adaptation of the 25-cents-a ride thrill feature of the New York World's Fair.

Since last November the army has trained one battalion, about 500 men, of the air-borne shock troops like those so prominent in the Crete campaign. By this November it expects to have a force of more than 2,000 even if world developments do not force speed-up the program.

The new system will slash training time by providing all the necessary instruction of jumping without the need of flying.

With the new towers "the men can take three or four jumps a morning, an impossibility if they had to be flown every time," says Capt. R. E. Lindquist, plans and training officer of the just-created provisional parachute group.

One of the towers is for controlled descents, just like the World's Fair attraction.

With chutes billowed above them, recruits are hauled 250 feet to the top in a seat. Cables control the descent and absorbers take up the shock of landing. Once he is accustomed to height perspective and the sensation of dropping, the soldier transfers to harness and is allowed to land without the benefit of absorbers to learn how to flex his legs and body.

Second Step
That step completed, the recruit is suspended horizontally from his chute straps and hauled 150 feet into the air. That is the position when he drops from a transport plane. Face downward, the soldier pulls a cord, drops 15 feet and is suddenly pulled up just as though a chute had snapped open above him. This gives him the body jerk he would get normally in a real jump.

The first training phase completed, the soldiers transfer to the second tower where he is hoisted the full 250 feet and dropped, his chute descending with no control except what he can exert through the shroud lines. A short practice at this and the soldier is ready for the biggest hurdle—psychologically at least—of stepping from a noisy plane cabin into the blasting stream 2,000 feet above the ground.

No Death of Candidates
But he isn't an army parachutist until he can dive out at 700 feet with a pistol and pack full of grenades, land safely on his feet, grab machine guns or other weapons dropped by other chutes and be ready to fight within a minute.

There's no death of candidates for parachute battalions. Capt. Lindquist says. All are volunteers and they have to be young, agile and athletically inclined. The parachute soldier can't be over 31 years old, 185 pounds or six feet, two inches. And he must be single.

Even the commander of the parachute group, W. C. Lee, is young as lieutenant colonel goes. He's 46. Capt. William T. Ryder, commander of the 501st battalion—the nation's first—is 28. The 502nd will be formed July 1, the 503rd Sept. 1 and the 504th Nov. 1.

HANK GREENBERG CAN'T LOSE HIMSELF IN ARMY

Nashville, Tenn., May 29—(AP)—Poor old Hankus-Pankus—Pvt. Henry Greenberg to the Army—is making a good soldier but he is a problem to himself because he can't "lose himself" in the fifth division of Fort Custer, Mich.

Greenberg, the former homerun-hitting outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, stopped here yesterday with his outfit enroute from Fort Custer to Tennessee for the June maneuvers.

All along the way it's been the same story. Autograph seekers, fans, curious folk of all descriptions have come out to get a look at the baseball genius.

"I'll appreciate it very much if the public will just let me get lost in the army and forget about me," he told reporters here. "It's awfully nice and considerate of my friends, but all this publicity is doing me more harm than good. I just want to be another one of the boys."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)
Bruce Campbell, Tigers—Hit two-run homer to lead attack on Indians.

Tom Ferrick and Sam Chapman, Athletics—Former pitched one-run ball for 10 innings in relief and latter sparked 16th inning rally with double to beat Red Sox.

Harland Clift, Browns—Hit two home runs against White Sox.

Don Padgett, Cardinals—Delivered pinch single in ninth to beat Cubs.

Vince Di Maggio, and Max Butcher—Pirates—Former hit three run homer and latter kept Reds shut out for seven innings.

George Selkirk, Yankees—Blasted home run with bases loaded in eighth to whip Senators.

Pete Reiser, Dodgers—Doubled winning run across in 12th against Phillies.

British War Aims Outlined by Eden

Foreign Secretary Is Speaker at Meeting
in London Last Eve

London, May 29—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, in his first comprehensive statement on Britain's war aims, declared today that "our political and military terms of peace will be designed to prevent a repetition of Germany's misdeeds."

Eden said that "under the system of free economic cooperation, Germany must play a part. But here I draw a firm distinction. 'We must never forget that Germany is the worst master Europe has yet known. Five times in the last century she has violated the peace. She must never be in a position to play that role again.'"

Eden, addressing a London audience, termed President Roosevelt's fireside chat Tuesday night "a momentous world event" because, "by his words, the president has given resolute expression to the fixed determination of the most powerful nation on earth."

He asserted that "a lasting settlement and internal peace of the continent as a whole is our only aim."

"It is obvious," the foreign secretary said, "that we have no motive of self-interest prompting us to economic exploitation either of Germany or of the rest of Europe."

"This is not what we want nor what we could perform x x x. 'The fact that at the bottom of his heart every combatant knows this is the ultimate source of our strength. To every neutral satellite or conquered country it is obvious our victory is, for the most fundamental and unalterable reasons, to their plain advantage.'"

"Only our victory can restore both to Europe and to the world that freedom which is our heritage for centuries of Christian civilization and that security which alone can make possible the betterment of man's lot upon earth."

He said the period between wars showed "no escape can be found from the curse which has been lying on Europe, except by creating and preserving economy health in every country x x x. 'We can not now foresee when the end will come. But it is the nature of a machine so rigid as the German to break suddenly and with little warning. When it comes the need of succor to European peoples will be urgent.'"

Eden said the president "described with incomparable breadth of vision the scope of the struggle in which we are engaged."

"He defined the settled policy of his country in terms which are as vigorously encouraging to us as they must be disheartening to the enemy," the foreign secretary declared.

"To give effect to this policy the president has decreed a state of unlimited national emergency in the United States."

"For our part, we have listened with hearts full of thankfulness to the president's determination that the cause of freedom can and will prevail."

He asserted that the president "pointed the way for free nations of the world x x x he has accomplished a great act of faith and statesmanship."

The keynote of the president's speech, he said, perhaps lay in "the repeated declaration that the national existence of free nations must ultimately depend upon freedom of the seas."

"This freedom," he added, "has been maintained in the past by the British and American navies and both countries have fought on many occasions to maintain it."

Eden said the British government would give "full support to any scheme that commands general approval" for tightening political, economic and cultural ties among Arab countries, presumably including French-mandated Syria.

University Is Not Likely to Receive Increased Budget

Springfield, Ill., May 29—(AP)—Chances that the University of Illinois would receive a 1942-43 biennial appropriation $500,000 in excess of that recommended by Governor Green were dimmed today by an informal agreement of Republican senators in caucus last night to make no compromise in supporting the governor's budget program.

Unless sufficient bi-partisan support can be obtained for the bill, sponsored by Senator Everett R. Peters (R-St. Joseph), which would provide for expenditures of $17,955,176, legislative observers said, the measure would have to be amended to conform with the $17,467,189 figure set by the administration budget.

Should the bill pass unamended, Governor Green made known on Tuesday, he would veto part of it to effect the reduction.

Senators who attended the caucus said that Senator Peters proposed a compromise which would permit passage of a bill approximately $250,000 above the governor's recommendation. The suggestion was countered by an appeal from Senator Earl B. Searcy of Springfield for the GOP legislators to "go solidly along with the governor."

University officials and board members voted Tuesday, after Green's veto warning, to concur their efforts to obtain the larger appropriation.

A bill which would discontinue legislative scholarships to the university in 1945, eliminating a free list under which $65,230 in tuition-free attendance is authorized annually, was sent to the House with a "do pass" recommendation by its executive committee. The measure was sponsored by Rep. Warren L. Wood (R-Plainfield).

MICHIGAN SEEKS AT LEAST SHARE OF BIG TEN TITLE IN BASEBALL GAME TODAY

Chicago, May 29—(AP)—Michigan's Wolverines shot for at least a tie for the Big Ten baseball championship against Northwestern's Wildcats today.

Victory for the Wolverines in today's battle, first of a two-game series, would clinch at least a half-share of the conference title, regardless of what Iowa, only other team still in the race, does in its four remaining games. A sweep of the series would give Michigan the championship outright.

Coach Ray Fisher of Michigan was expected to start Micky Stodard on the mound, saving Cliff Wise for Friday's battle. Northwestern's hill choice was Bob Motl, with either Harry Clason or Irving Forth hurling Friday.

Iowa will play Wisconsin at Iowa City this week-end and follow up with another pair next week-end against Ohio State. Minnesota and Chicago will play at Minneapolis this Friday and Saturday and Notre Dame will oppose California at South Bend the same days.

TO DEDICATE AIRPORT

DuQuoin, Ill.—(AP)—(AP)—A new municipal airport, one of the largest in southern Illinois, will be dedicated during an all-day program Memorial Day. Under a one-day arrangement with postal officials, a branch post office will be set up at the field to collect mail which will be flown to St. Louis by Pilot Jack Winthrop of DuQuoin.

There will be prizes for each player who participated in the breakfast match at Plum Hollow Golf and Country club Sunday morning. About 30 men are expected to play. The event will begin at 8 a. m. (no hum, fellows) and breakfast will be served at 8 o'clock at Higby's.

FOOTBALL NEWS

From the spring football camp of Coach Lindell and his Dixon high school squad comes the news that the boys are varying their attack for next season with practice of the T formation. This week ends the annual spring drills.

JUMPING AROUND THE MAP

Two Mendota boys helped Bradley win the Illinois College conference track meet when Don Whitmore was second in the javelin and Leroy Littlewood was third in the shot put. Athletic Director Merritt Allen may be the only member of the Freeport sports staff to retain present duties when September rolls around. . . . Allen has spiked a report that Freeport was to pull out of the Big Eight for the spot in the North Central conference made vacant by Belvidere.

DIAMOND DUST

It is reported that Harold Prestegard, great utility-man for the Knacks in previous seasons, may return to the team roster soon. Harold is a leading hitter and can serve equally as well as catcher or any infield post.

GAMES AT POLO TONIGHT

For the second night of the current Polo football League's season the Naylor's club meets the Peat team in the curtain raiser tonight and the Smith Oils meet the Polo Garment team in the nightcap.

CONFERENCE GOLF MEET

The North Central conference golf meet is to be held Saturday at Mendota starting at 8:30 a. m. Jimmy Rosenfelder of Mendota is being touted by the southerners as favorite to take the individual honors, but to win he will have to reckon with such stalwarts of the Dixon teams as Bill Witzleb and Skeeter Feldkirchner and some outstanding club-swingers from Sterling.

ANOTHER DEADLOCK

Tied games are no rare thing for the softball players from South Central school and in a six-inning game Tuesday the boys of the fifth grade played a 19 to 19 deadlock with Lincoln's team. Earlier in the week they had battled to a 28-28 game with St. Mary's. Albert Bellows was the high scorer for South Central in the Tuesday tilt and Henry Woodvatt tagged home the most times for Lincoln. The winning battery was composed of Jack Leier as pitcher and Junior Smith as catcher. Harold France did the chucking for Lincoln and Woodyatt was behind the plate. Tuesday's game was the last of the softball season and the record shows one victory, two tie games and one game won by forfeit.

ROCHELLE TENNIS TEAM LOSES

West Rockford's visiting tennis team defeated the Rochelle high school netmen, 4 to 3, in a red hot series yesterday. Scores were: Singles: Don Carter (WR) beat Claude Hazelton (R), 6-0, 6-3; Stan Larson (R) beat Gordon Smith (DR), 6-2, 9-7; Lyle Kunde (R) beat Dick Cutting (WR), 6-1, 6-2; Bernie Bailey (WR) beat Bob Harris (R), 2-6, 6-1, 6-1; Jim Hancock (WR) beat Willard Klewin (R), 6-4, 6-0. Doubles: Carter-Cutting (WR) beat Larson-Kunde (R), 6-2, 3-6, 6-3; Hazelton-Harris (R) beat Smith-Fairhead (WR), 7-9, 6-4.

IT HAPPENS IN THE BEST OF FAMILIES

John Lindell (C. B.'s kith and kin) was the losing pitcher in a night game which his Newark mates lost to Jersey City, 6 to 1, last week. With a single he batted in one run on the mound he whiffed one, walked four and allowed seven hits in six innings. This is one of John's few losses this season.

HARDBOOTS

Harold Huyett, Lawrence Poole and William Covert were among the Dixons who enjoyed yesterday afternoon at the Lincoln Fields Track. Returning home they visited with friends at Tinley Park.

Tony Zale Comes After Bad Round to Defeat Hostak

By EARL HILLIGAN

Chicago, May 29—(AP)—They grow them fame in Gary.

Tony Zale, who once toiled in the mills of that Indiana steel city, proved that before 14:07 roaring fight fans at the stadium last night. Knocked spinning in the first round, he came back with a furious attack to knock out Al Hostak of Seattle in 2 minutes, 32 seconds of the second stanza and retain his world's National Boxing association middleweight championship.

The scheduled 15-round battle, third between these punching stars of the 160 pound division, was hailed as a likely slugfest and was just that.

Swarming across the ring, Hostak cracked the champion with a right to the chin that sent the Gary boy reeling. His gloves touched the canvas but he did not take a count. He piled back into the Seattle fighter from then on to the bell.

Down for Nine Count

As the second round opened Zale tore in with both hands. Hostak dropped for a nine count from a savage blow to the heart. Down he went again for a three count. Twice more the courageous Hostak fell without taking a count but another smash put him down for nine.

Again Zale, racing in, slashing the glass-eyed Hostak to the boards for a count of five and a count of eight. As he arose Zale uncorked a terrific right to the heart. Hostak started to buckle, took a left to the face and went down for good.

The battle, which grossed $18,475, was the third between Hostak and Zale. In January, 1940, Zale took a decision in an overweigh match, then won the title from the Seattle star last July. It was "Gary night" at the stadium. In a 10-round bout, Booker Beckwith, 21-year-old negro from Zale's home town, took an easy decision over Solly Krieger, Brooklyn, once middleweight champion. It was Beckwith's 13th straight win.

Knacks Will Play Spring Valley Here in Holiday Game

STRONG RIVALS HAVE WON FOUR GAMES TO DATE

Lineups for Tomorrow's Game Are Announced By Managers

If their is to be any decorating done tomorrow during the Memorial Day program, the Dixon Knacks' slogan will be: "Mother, pin a rose on me." Seeking their third straight win of the season the Knacks will entertain the Spring Valley Merchants here at Reynolds field before a holiday throng.

After winning over the Peru Merchants and Round Grove in consecutive Sundays, the Knacks this week end begin a two-day program with the engagement at Prophetstown on Sunday.

With an imposing record of four victories in as many starts, the Spring Valley club offers the most serious threat to date to the Knacks' prestige. Last year the Merchants won 20 games and lost two and took the championship of the Illinois Valley Semi-Pro tournament.

Ace Moulder

Vic Trahd, portside hurler for the Spring Valley club, has pitched his team to three of its four consecutive league triumphs and is also leading the team at bat with a hefty .600.

The team batting average is .290 with J. Taylor's .500 and Earl Rimmel's .375 for the regulars boosting it materially.

For tomorrow's lineup Manager Glovetski has named the following: Baracani, cf; Mattiada, ss; Kalman, 3b; Remmele, 1b; Gargol, c; Taylor, lf; Eagle, rf; Martinkus, 2b and Trahd on the mound. Frank Harzheim is also a member of the team's pitching staff and accounted for the club's fourth victory this season.

To date the Merchants have defeated Hennepin (21-2), LaSalle Merchants (6-5), DePue (7-1) and Oglesby (11-4).

Manager Hi Emmert this morning announced that Hank Henry, former Dixon star, will be given the assignment her for the mound work tomorrow and Ralph Keegan will be retained for the tilt at Prophetstown.

Knacks' Lineup

The Knacks' lineup for the holiday skirmish includes: Kuhn, rf; Zera, ss; Knauer, 1b; Miller, lf; Windmiller, c; Full, 3b; Rucker, cf; Kruk, 2b and Henry, p. Others held in reserve by Manager Emmert and Coach Bill Bushman are Wise, p; Glessner, 2b; and Keegan, p.

Tomorrow's game will begin at 2:30.

DIXON NETMEN DEFEATED BY PRINCETON 6-2

That net strung across the tennis courts doesn't look strong enough to hold the Princeton Tigers who are powerful contenders for the North Central conference tennis title in the annual meet Saturday.

Last night the Princeton boys came to Dixon and defeated the Dukes, 6 to 2, but had more trouble doing it than the score indicates.

In the singles last night Red McNamera defeated L. Gilder-master of the visitors with set scores of 9-7 and 6-2. After a close first set the Dixon netman came through to take the second with ease.

Minnihan of the Dukes bowed to Seibel of Princeton with scores of 6-3 and 6-2 and Mercer of the visitors turned back Mason of Dixon 10-8 and 6-0.

Ned Sack won the second point for Dixon with a 6-3 and 7-5 victory over Brown.

E. Gilder-master of Princeton defeated Goff with scores of 6-1 and 6-0 and Kasbeer, also of the Tigers' team, defeated Shaw with sets of 7-5 and 6-2.

Doubles

In the doubles the Dixon tandem made the Tigers pay for every inch of the way. Mercer and Seibel defeated McNamera and Sack only after a strong struggle with scores of 7-5, 2-6, 8-6.

Minnihan and Mason also ran the Tigers into a three-set match before Brown and L. Gilder-master won, 6-3, 4-6 and 6-2.

The conference meet which will include players from Dixon, Sterling, Princeton, Mendota, DeKalb and Belvidere will be held Saturday on the Princeton courts.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, May 29.—(The Special News Service)—Rumor Foundry: The Brown front office is spiking stories Dick Ferrell will replace Fred Haney. They sounded off-key to start with since Haney tried for two seasons to get Ferrell on the club. . . . And we suppose reports that some of the Reds aren't speaking to each other are just part of the gossip that always goes along with a slump. . . . The Washington Boxing commission says it paid Arthur Donovan $150 to referee Louis-Baer, Ray C. Alvis, one of the promoters, says Donovan got a grand. Which is right, and if it's Alvis, who made up the difference?

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp
Hank Greenberg's outfit is marching 15 miles per day from Fort Custer, Mich., to Camp Forrest, Tennessee. . . . Good crowds turn out at every stop. At one, signs were being carried around reading, "Here Comes the Army—and Greenberg." . . . Ben Chapman says the reason Washington aired him was his $12,000 salary. Clark Griffith merely says, "We are still on the market for a hard-hitting outfielder." . . . P. S.: Chapman caught at 255. . . . Prof. McRex, the linguistic coach of the Red Sox, interviewed Maurice Tillet (The Angel) and reports the Angel speaks the best French he's heard since he was in Paris several years ago. Moreover, M. Tillet struck Berg as a cultured and educated gentleman, even if he is uglier than Tony Galento.

Today's Guest Star
C. E. McBride, Kansas City Star: "Baseball brings strange switches. . . . Dick Bartell, now on the Giants, finds himself teamed with Gabby Hartnett and Bill Jurgens. . . . Bartell and Gabby didn't get along when Dick was with the Cubs. . . . And in the old days when Bartell was a Giant and Jurgens a Cub, they used to tangle every time they came together in a play at second base."

Zeke Bonura, bowling along at a sweet 400 clip for Minneapolis, predicts he'll be first basing in the majors before the season is over and there are plenty who will second the motion. . . . The deal the Braves and Reds were trying to make didn't involve Max West, but called for Ernie Lombardi and Whitely Moore to change uniforms with Ray Berres and Lloyd Waner. Then Ernie began hitting and the thing fell through. . . . The Detroit football Lions will move back into Briggs Stadium for next fall's home games. . . . Detroit U's orchard wasn't big enough.

One-Minute Interview
Joe Cronin: "If Joe and Dominic DiMaggio played in the same outfield there wouldn't be enough room for a third outfielder."

ATHLETICS PROVIDING REAL SENSATION OF MAJOR LOOPS

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The real sensation of the spring in the major leagues now is being provided by the Philadelphia Athletics, who have won nine of their last 11 games.

From a haphazard crew that floundered helplessly for five weeks, once losing seven straight games and another time five in a row, the A's suddenly have sprung up to challenge the first division in the American League.

They squeezed into fifth place ahead of Boston yesterday by capturing a 6-4, 16-inning marathon from the Red Sox and now not only are threatening Detroit in fourth place, but are just three games out of second.

No one will dissent in giving the greatest credit to that 78-year-old genius of the scoreboard, Cornelius McGillicuddy himself.

For years frail old Connie Mack has been planning and building for days like these. With no farm system worthy of the name and virtually without assistance Mr. Mack has sorted over literally hundreds of would-be ball players like a farmer would grade apples. As they passed before his clear blue eyes Mr. Mack would keep this one, discard that one, hand another in the minors for a later day—weaving a pattern patiently in defiance of time.

Young, Vital Team

Now he has a young, vital team, full of potentialities but short on pitching. This latter difficulty has been alleviated through great relief work by Luman Harris and Tom Ferrick, who was picked out of the semi-pro ranks last winter.

Ferrick pitched the last ten innings against the Red Sox yesterday, kept eight hits spaced and allowed only one run. It was the tenth time in 12 relief calls that he has finished the game and on eight of these occasions the A's have won.

While the Athletics have been raiding in the east, the Detroit Tigers have conquered the first-

POLO GOLFERS LOSE MATCH AT ROCKFORD

St. Thomas high school golfers of Rockford, clicking in mid-season stride, yesterday chalked up their seventh victory in eight dual matches by defeating Polo, 8½ to 6½. The tour was made over the victors' home course.

Low card of the match was turned in by Joe Donahue of the winners with 41 and 36 for 77. His opponent, Carl Smith of Polo, has second low honors with 43 and 41 for 84.

A return match scheduled at Polo on Saturday.

Cubs Nipped Again

The St. Louis Cardinals continued their burning pace in the National League with another ninth-inning rally to clip the Chicago Cubs 6-5 for their ninth consecutive victory. The Cubs fought hard, with Bill Nicholson hitting his tenth homer of the year with one on in the fourth and Lou Novikoff punching another in the ninth, but the Redbirds tallied three times in their half of the ninth on a double, a triple and two singles.

A three-run homer by Vince DiMaggio gave the Pittsburgh Pirates the margin they needed to cage the Cincinnati Reds, 7-4. Big Max Butcher kept the Reds' hitting so well spread that the champions didn't score until the eighth.

Brooklyn's Dodgers preserved their hex over the Phillies by taking a 6-5 twelve inning decision in a night game. Dolph Camilli and Dixie Walker smacked their tenth and seventh homers of the year to help the Dodgers to a 5-0 lead in the first five innings but Kirby Higbe and Curt Davis couldn't hold the lead. A double by Pete Reiser finally knocked in the winning run.

A grand-slam home run by George (Twink) Selkirk with the bases loaded in the eighth brought the New York Yankees a 6-5 verdict over the Washington Senat-

THIRTY-THREE TO START TOMORROW IN SPEED EVENT

All-American Field is Set For Classic at Indianapolis

Indianapolis, May 29—(AP)—An All-American field of 33 cars will face the starter tomorrow for the 29th running of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway's 500 mile race.

Rene LeBeque and Jean Trevoux, who went to a lot of trouble to bring their Talbot Specials from unoccupied France, failed to get into the starting lineup. Their last chance passed yesterday.

LeBeque, who finished 10th in last year's "500" made an attempt but his car lacked the needed speed. He qualified at a speed of 115.603 miles an hour, slowest of the 35 qualifiers, and thus was relegated to second alternate position.

A car must do 115 miles an hour or better for 10 miles to qualify.
